Explanation of Responses:

1. Each of the restricted stock units reported in this row represents a contingent right to receive a value in cash relating to the price of the Issuer's common shares.
2. The restricted stock units generally vest on the third anniversary of the date of grant of February 18, 2026, subject to the other terms of the award.
3. Each of the target market stock units reported in this row represents a contingent right to receive one Issuer common share.
4. In general, the target market stock units can be earned from 50% to 150% based on Issuer stock price performance achievement during a three-year performance period starting February 18, 2026, subject to the other terms of the award.
